One Good Turn Project Donations Awarded Monthly

Phoenix, Ariz. – March 8, 2011 – Commotion Promotions is proud to announce Touchstone Behavioral Health located in Phoenix, AZ., as the second recipient of their “One Good Turn Project” donation. Touchstone Behavioral Health will receive $500 of promotional merchandise to help spread the word of their cause in their community.

The award recipient for February was Touchstone Behavioral health located in Phoenix, AZ. It’s even more of an honor to be able to partner with Touchstone this month because they are a local organization that helps the community we work and live in. Touchstone Behavioral Health is a community behavioral center that has been serving the Phoenix metro area since 1968. They serve children, adolescents and families that are experiencing behavioral and/or emotional problems. Their most recent endeavor has been working with children affected by Autism. Each year Touchstone works with close to 3000 families and touches the lives of nearly 7500 families. They provide family and group therapy, therapeutic foster care, school and home based services and 24 hour service to help keep children with their families and out of out-of-home placements. Touchstone will use their donation to purchase items for their Family Fun Day in October. They will use the items as prizes to giveaway to the children and families at the event.

The One Good Turn Project is the brainchild of Karen Kravitz, President and Owner of Commotion Promotions.

“The motivation for this program evolved from the current hardship facing non-profit organizations due to the decrease in financial funding and private donations. It’s harder than ever to spread the message of goodness and kindness, of hope and caring and our goal is to make it a little easier.”

The One Good Turn Project will award $500 in promotional products to one non-profit organization per month to help promote their cause. Applicants are chosen based on the impact, basic goodness and long term results they will achieve through their endeavor. Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis throughout the year with donations awarded each month; applicants must apply 6 weeks prior to their event.
